

REMARKS

The Notice (copy enclosed) required submission of a substitute specification due to the presence of hand lettering on various pages. The substitute specification enclosed herewith has such hand lettering incorporated into the printed text. Accordingly, it is respectfully submitted that the requirements of the Notice are met, such that reconsideration and withdrawal of the Notice to File Corrected Papers is respectfully requested.

Applicants respectfully note that the substitute specification contains the exact content of the specification as originally filed. Accordingly, the Preliminary Amendment filed January 21, 2004 should be applied to the enclosed substitute specification prior to examination of the application.

Respectfully submitted,
